Add Some Sparkle to Your Writing

Hey gorgeous!

Feeling like your latest project lost its pizzazz? We all know that the writing process isn't glitz and glamour 24/7 but that doesn't mean we have to wallow in boring prose and less-than-inspired story ideas. Right?!? Right!

You aren't alone. Trust me.

Writing is an art. The more you do it, the better you'll get. Sometimes, the best way to get better is to try new methods to spark your creative flow. The next few pages list out some helpful prompts and suggestions to get the sparkle and shine back into your writing so it illuminates the page and captivates your audience.

Try them all on. See which ones work best for your journey.

You got this! I believe in you and know you can do it. Let's go shine!

xo,

Lynn

Think Outside the Page

1.

Like hearing yourself talk? Try recording yourself telling your story.

2.

Get back into your creative frequency. What are some things you can do to get yourself back in the groove? Ex: Create a playlist for your project to keep the vibe strong.

3.

Write like nobody's watching. This is YOUR story. Only you can write it. Only you can do it your way. So do it. The only person standing in your way is YOU.

4.

It's okay to walk away from your story. In fact, it's helpful to recharge your creative spark. Read a book, watch a movie, listen to some music, take a walk, etc. Let your brain relax so it can generate captivating ideas that will make your story shine.

Trust Yourself

Thank you for investing your time and working through these steps. I know some of these prompts were not easy or maybe didn't work for you. I encourage you to revisit the ones that helped and move on from the ones that didn't. If you skipped any because they felt "too difficult," go back and try again when it feels right.

I believe in you and I know you can create the novel of your dreams.

Remember this:

- ★ The fact that you want it is enough.
- ★ Your writing is worthy to be shared and adored
- ★ You are a powerhouse writer
- ★ The world needs your story
- ★ You were born to share your gifts with the world

About Lynn

I'm the proud creator of sexy, emotional and captivating stories. My debut trilogy, The Breathless Series, has been read all over the world, drawing readers in with realistic, relatable characters and a hard-to-put-down storyline.

My career is filled with all types of writing; from press releases and promotional materials to scripts for live TV news. In my years of experience, I've trained new writers right out of college and given refreshers to people getting back into the industry.

For me, writing is a calling. Writing is a way to express the deepest parts of who you are.
